

Are You At Risk?

Scented laundry detergents and fabric softeners pollute indoor and outdoor air!

- They leave carcinogenic residues that have been shown to cause respiratory distress, and may stress the immune system.*
- They pollute outdoor air through laundry vents, contaminating the air with fragrance chemicals, including phthalates.*
- When you use scented laundry products, they are on you - and affect others - 24 hours a day.*

Citation:

Anderson RC, Anderson JH. Respiratory toxicity of fabric softener emissions. Journal of Toxicology and Environmental Health. 2000 May 26;60(2):121-36.